with me during the interview is Special Agent Gary McCamey -- it's M-C-C-A-M-E-Y -
- and [REDACTED]. All right, Miss [REDACTED] so again like I said before I turned the recorder on, we heard that - that maybe you - you saw some things or you had some information that you would wanna share with investigators reference what happened last Sunday.

CH: Uh, about the day - I not was here in the day but...

BH: Okay.

CH: ...I was - and I - and I was here in the nighttime but I leave at 6 o'clock.

BH: Okay.

CH: So - but, um, Friday, uh, I come in with 12 o'clock and I serve one table. Uh, it was, like, uh, the table it was 202.

BH: Table 202?

CH: Mm-hm.

BH: Okay.

CH: And I serve it to this guy. At that moment I don't know who was it but, um, when I see the picture on the TV and somebody show me the picture, I say I know this person.

BH: Okay, so...

CH: But that's when I recall it. I saw it on Friday.

BH: Okay, so on Friday at around - was it right at 10:00 am? Right when you guys open or...

CH: No, we open at 11:00.

BH: Okay, so what time do you think it was when you served...

CH: It was, uh, 12- 12:05.

BH: Okay and this person that, uh, that came in, can you describe what he looked like?

CH: It was a late - it was, uh, a couple. It - it was a - a white guy...

BH: Mm-hm.

CH: ...uh, with, uh, a little beard...

BH: Okay.

CH: ...um, mixed with white hair. And, uh, it was, uh, this short lady, uh, with, uh, tied hair, beautiful makeup at that time. And, uh, um, she was wearing a black t-shirt, like a jean t-shirt...

BH: Okay.

CH: ...and, uh, a white skirt, like tennis - tennis skirt.

BH: Okay.

CH: Uh, and, uh, I serve to them. Uh, um, I servin', uh, hot tea and water. And, um, I stand at over there with the hostess commenting something about Filipina. And, uh, that's all I remember.

BH: Okay, so you think that the lady that you saw with him - what, uh, what race or nationality?

CH: It - it - it was, like, I just joking around sometime with the hostess and I tell her, "I bet - I bet that lady's a Filipina."

BH: Okay.

CH: 'Cause my husband is Filipino.

BH: Okay.

CH: So - and I say, "I bet that lady's Filipina." I say and, uh - uh, the hostess told me, "Sure, it looked like."

BH: Okay, um, so you served tea and some water. Did they eat? Did they eat any food?

CH: Th- they eat.

BH: Okay and so after they're done eating, how - how did he pay the bill?

CH: I not a server. I'm busser. I just serve the drink.

BH: Okay.

CH: And I don't have a idea because the server is the one deal with the bill.

BH: Okay.

CH: The only thing I see before they go - because when I come into work they was already there. I don't see they coming.

BH: Okay.

CH: So, um, when they decide to left, I don't put attention how they pay the bill...

BH: Mm-hm.

CH: ...honestly. And - but when I see they left, uh, the guy walk into the casino and the lady ask him for the restroom so she go for the restroom in the back of the other restaurant. So that's all I see.

BH: Okay and so, um, did - you obviously, uh, serve them drinks. Did you have any conversation with them at all?

CH: Well there was, uh, the guy was nice. Uh, he say, "Thank you," but that's all.

BH: Okay.

CH: Didn't talkin' too much.

BH: Do you remember, um, outside of - of his beard, do you remember what he was wearing?

CH: I don't focus too much on him. I was lookin' that lady. You know, woman we criticize each other sometime.

BH: Mm-hm.

CH: But so I was lookin' more to her because she - that thing - she get my attention because she - she look - from far away she looked, uh, she looked so young but when you go close that why I recognize her in the - in the picture because, uh - uh, she got, uh, the root - the white hair.

BH: Okay.

CH: So that's - that's the thing I more focus because when I pass close I say, "Oh, she look young but she's not that - that young." You know?

BH: Right.

CH: So that's what my think about. That's it. So that's when I recognize - say, "Oh, these - I see these people."

GM: So - so you recognize the lady in the shop as the lady you saw in the picture? Is that what you're sayin'?

CH: At the TV.

GM: Okay, so - so the lady that was in the Noodle Shop is the - you think is the same lady that you saw i- i...

CH: I think it is 'cause that - I - I - the thing more focused is in the hair because when I was watchin' it, like, from couple f- feet away, the lady looks, uh, like a young lady.

BH: Mm-hm.

GM: Not from seeing the picture but from what you remember of the lady...

CH: It's...

GM: ...in the shop?

CH: ...like around the 50 something...

GM: Okay.

CH: ...55 maybe.

GM: And do you remember what her hair was like?

CH: It was tied. She was makin' something, like, tie over here and not long - not - not long hair but it was, like, tied and you can see this over here.

GM: Okay and was she - was she heavy? Was she thin? Do...

[REDACTED] the Senior Vice Present and Chief Council of Operations. All right [REDACTED] you understand this is bein' recorded?

AD: Yes I do.

TA: Okay. The date is October 7th 2017 and the time is 1449 hours. Um, it's our - become our understanding through this investigation - we're obviously here for the events that happened last Sunday.

AD: Mm-hm.

TA: That, um, you had contact with [REDACTED] Is that correct?

AD: That's correct.

TA: And was that working in your capacity here at work?

AD: Yes.

TA: Okay so can you tell me how that contact was started and then from there we'll kinda...

AD: Okay.

TA: ...go.

AD: It was a long time ago so I'm not ever sure the day. When I, uh, got into work I kinda looked him up to see how far back it goes. But, um, I think it only went back to like 2013 - like my records of him. Pretty sure it was longer than that ago that I met him. Um, and honestly it's so long ago that I don't remember. We get players one of two ways. You can either, you know, bring them in. You can meet them on the floor. Or

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

actually you can get sponsored. Three different ways, um, that you can acquire them. I honestly don't remember which way it was that I acquired my knowledge of him or my introduction of him initially. Um, so it - and I'm v- very unclear of exactly what year it was even to be honest with ya. So, um, but I did have several interactions with him over the years. Um, nothing, um, no actual phone contact or per- face to face within like maybe the last year and a half I would say. Um, I did have recent text messages with him though. Um, just mainly in the course of business of wa- him wantin' to book a room at Caesar's. Um, I did save those. But, um, uh, it's - yeah I couldn't tell ya on the exact date or how I actually did meet him. Unf- it's just through the course of business. It was one of those three ways. So...

TA: Okay, um, so compared to - I - I don't even r- really know how to question this. But compared to somebody else you're assigned to...

AD: Mm-hm.

TA: ...was he a regular patron here? Or was it sporadic?

AD: Uh, so he was regular for a couple years. But, uh, in the last year and a half, um, we basically cut off his offers to bring him on in. And we also, um, uh, took out his favorite basically machines. Like, uh, he was a pretty skilled gambler. So, um, we had machines that had very advantageous payback pay scales for - and anyone that's very skilled will know that - to look for those particular machines to play. And, uh, once we took those out he stopped comin' in. He would occasionally call me to book a room for him or somethin' like that but he, um, uh, he wouldn't really gamble

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

at all. So, like, his last date of play where he actually had any notable gambling was like a year and a half ago. It was like March 2006. So, um, yeah it's been about at least a year and a half where he actually gambled at a hosted level. So when I say hosted level I mean like worthwhile for me to call him and try to acquire his business. So, um, so yeah it - it - it had not been any recent contact, um, for me tryin' to market him. Um, but he did, uh, text me just to book a room, um, in late August. So yeah...

TA: And...

AD: I did and he didn't play worth anything. So...

TA: And do you remember what dates he wanted booked back in August?

AD: Yeah I got it right here. I believe it's the 27 and the 28. And I can - give me a second - pull up right now. Yeah August 27 and 28.

TA: Okay.

AD: And he did stay at Caesar - at - this is at Caesar's Palace.

TA: And just - this is, um, purely on your recollection.

AD: Mm-hm.

TA: But how many times had he stayed on the property in the last couple of years?

AD: Um, at any of our properties or just Caesar's or...

TA: Just that you had interaction with him.

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT

AD: Okay gotcha. Um, probably about - see it's - okay so I think it was December of 2016. Um, and March of 2016. And August of 20- uh, the - oh I'm sorry. I'm - I'm sorry. M- March of 2017 and August of 2017. So those are probably like the last three I think it was. Didn't play really worth anything on any of those trips so no.

TA: All right. And then kinda explain to me, um, if there's somebody you're assigned to as a host...

AD: Mm-hm.

TA: ...what are - what is your job while that person is here?

AD: While they're here, um, to greet 'em. Make sure that they're comfortable here. Make sure that they got everything that you promised 'em comin' on in. So usually your contact begins with you reaching out to them. Or sometimes they reach out to you, either way. Um, and then that's kinda where the negotiation begins of what - what you wanna - what you're gonna - willing to do for them to bring 'em on in. A lot of times we send out offers or somethin' like that. So, um, but when - when you're booking them a room, you know, it's like they want a specific type of suite, if they want, you know, um, they wanna be guaranteed amo- certain amount of free play or show tickets or somethin' like that you bring 'em on in. When you - you can - if you're here while they are you usually greet their limo. 'Cause you know when they're comin' in to pick 'em up at the airport. I greet the limo. Make sure you walk 'em to VIP. Make sure they get checked in. Um, and then, um, they basically kinda let 'em do their own thing. You'll st- stop by, you know, once or twice, maybe three times during their trip just to make sure that everything's goin' fine. Give 'em face time. You know, sometimes you do dinners with them. Sometimes you do shows with 'em. Um, never did any of that with [REDACTED]. Um, he was kind of just, you know, I would - I'd probably sit and talk with him for probably about 20, 30 minutes every trip just, uh, at the machine while he was gambling. Most conversations involved just gambling really. He liked to talk about gambling and traveling. Um, I can't recall really much specifics because we're talkin' at least a year and a half ago my last face to face contact with him. Um, but, um, yeah I mean it's - y- you basically check 'em up on the trip. But I mean they - they do their stuff. You don't hold their hand. You know? I mean y- you don't babysit 'em. Some of 'em are more needy than others. Um, if they're needy, you know, I mean you'll hear from 'em a lot. And just they'll keep askin' you for stuff for trips. Somethin' comes up and you're just like - and hey last minute I want this. I want that. I want, you know, whether it's restaurant reservations, spa, golf, show tickets -- I mean you name it -- y- you take care of it - it - mid trip with 'em. But, uh, with guys that just like to gamble I mean they - they sit at the machines. They do their own thing. So it's not, um, you know, you - you try to build a rapport with them. You know? You know, try to get 'em - know - know 'em on a personal level. Um, wasn't really - wasn't the most open guy that way. But, um, you know, I mean he had no problem with me sittin' there and talkin' to him for like 20, 30 minutes every time he'd come in. So (unintelligible).

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT

TA: Did he ever have any special requests as far as rooms or locations or anything?

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT

AD: Um, I'm tryin' to remember. Not really, no. Um, I think - I know I did put him in our presidential suite one time. And that's like on the top floor of, uh, the Rio. And that was - that was a while back. I mean we're talkin' three - three, four years ago. But, um, you know, um, and I think he might've asked for that one. After we put him in it once I think he might've asked for it one or two more times. 'Cause - but I mean it's a sick suite. So it's, uh, it's got a pool. Got its own private pool. It's on the, you know, 51 floor. So I mean it's - it's nice, um...

TA: Can you get me a room there?

AD: What's that?

TA: Can you get me a room there?

AD: Yeah - yeah. Talk to those two.

TA: All right. Any other, um, special requests that he would ever have as far as dinner or anything else?

AD: I mean he occasionally asked for show tickets. Um, but other than that no not really. I mean...

But, um, 'cause most of our players, you know, if they get agitated some of 'em will yell. But, like, just out of - out of the blue like that I didn't expect it from him. But yeah he was kind of an odd guy. But, um, that's about the only weird kinda specific thing I could remember about it. And then like I said this is years ago. AD: I don't remember. 'Cause I think at that - around that time he had just moved to Mesquite I wanna say. So, like, I think sometimes he would come in, um, when he'd fly to - 'cause I think he had a - he told me he had a place up in Reno. So he - I know he had a r- um, so I think he would fly in if he was comin' from there but probably drive in from Mesquite. But I d- I - I think it was probably about half and half then.

TA: Okay. And besides [REDACTED] any other mentions or comments about any other family? Did he - children or anything like that?

AD: Nuh-uh.

TA: None? Okay. And just outta curiosity what were the machines that he liked to play? 'Cause you said once you guys got rid of those machines he...

AD: Yeah.

TA: ...kinda stopped coming.

AD: Yeah so it was Ten Play Dollar, um, I believe it was Double Bonus Poker. So, um, uh, we still have, like, machines of - like that but not with those pay scales.

TA: Okay.

AD: So...

TA: All right. Did he, um, tables at all? Or was it m- mainly just machines?

AD: Uh, no. It was, uh, (unintelligible) Poker.

AD: Mm-hm.

TA: Um, most of his meals would he order room service or would he go down to restaurants?

AD: I don't remember.

TA: Okay. Um, when he was here did you ever - did it ever appear to you that there was an excessive amount of baggage?

AD: No.

TA: No?

AD: But I, you know, I didn't always meet him when he came in. So now I - I can't - I can't recall a time where he had a lot of baggage though no.

TA: Okay. And then as far as his personal appearance goes is there anything that struck out o- or like struck out? Was he, um, elaborate clothing? Same clothing?

AD: No.

AD: Huh-uh.

TA: A- any other - you said show tickets but concert tickets anything like that?

AD: Yeah exactly. Like Pen and Teller. That sort of thing.

TA: Okay. And is it kind of a normal thing for you guys to set people up at different properties throughout town?

AD: Yeah.

TA: Okay.

AD: Yeah always.

TA: Did you ever have any conversations with [REDACTED]?

AD: Uh, not without him there. She was just kind of like, um, ancillary. Like, I mean she was - so she was - he - he would always be the person I talked to. And, like, she would chime in once in a while with somethin'. But mainly it was just like - she was pretty quiet if I remember right. So she didn't really talk much and she was just kinda like off to the side. It was just, like, his girlfriend. Like, that was it. And it was like - so I mean he was the main player. I don't think she even really gambles or has money. It's like, you know, sometimes we get players that play on other people's TA: No special requests from her ever?

AD: No.

TA: Okay.

AD: I really had - I never had any interaction with her outside of when she would sit next to him gambling. So...

TA: Okay. And you mentioned, um, then the last time that he came in the - the text messages.

AD: Mm-hm.

TA: When he would come in would you receive a lotta text messages from him?

AD: Uh, not really. I mean it was just, uh, in the process of se- whatever questions would be necessary to set up the - the trip.

TA: Mm-hm.

AD: Or what he wanted or whatever. So - I have it right here. So...

TA: All right so mainly just dates when he was gonna be here?

AD: So it's just, uh, yeah and what he was lookin' for, you know, if he had anything due to him comin' in. So...

TA: On his most recent stay, uh, the August stay...

AD: Mm-hm.

TA: Could you notice any type of, um, visible behavior change or anything?

AD: I didn't meet him that trip 'cause he stayed at Caesar's. And my office is at the Rio so...

TA: Okay.

AD: Um, so that's - I guess I haven't seen him, like, I didn't see him, like, since he s- last stayed at the Rio which was March of 2016. So that's the last time I actually s- physically saw him and probably actually the last time I talked to him. I might've had a phone call in-between sometime. Um, you know, I didn't set up all my, um, trips with him via text. I think I, you know, there's some phone calls in there sporadically. But, um, he stayed at Caesar's that trip so I went ahead and booked him. You know, with my - some of my players I'll go and greet 'em at other properties. But I knew that - I had a feeling he wasn't gonna gamble much. 'Cause he stiffed me on play basically the last two or three times that he was in. You know? I, you know, I knew he was still a gambler because I know his host at Mandalay Bay. And so I know he - he gambled big over there still. So you take a shot with these guys like that if they ask for a room. You know? You might get lucky and he'll play, you know - you know, thousands of dollars through a machine and, you know, what's it cost you? It cost TA: Okay. Um, again besides [REDACTED] no other females?

AD: No I (unintelligible).

TA: Never s- never saw him with?

AD: No.

TA: Okay.

AD: Huh-uh.

TA: Anything else?

TA: Anything?

MR: I've just got one follow quest- follow-up question. It's [REDACTED]

Regarding the travel.

AD: Yeah.

MR: Did he - was there any odd things that you remember about...

AD: No, um, not really no. Um, and I'm tryin' to think here if it was like - I - I - I coulda sworn we had a conversation about him goin' to the Philippines. 'Cause I like travelin' too. Like, you know, I plan on going to Thailand in, uh, November here. So, like, you know, so we're, like, we - we love travelin' all over the place, me and my wife do. So it's like I remember that's just kind of somethin' I gravitate towards when I have conversations with my players. 'Cause it's, you know, you just look for any kind of mutual common ground that you can talk to and build a - a rapport with someone. Um, I, uh, I wanna say, like, he talked about, you know, like goin' to the Philippines and stuff like that and travelin'. But, um, you know, and he did a lot of - said, uh, a lot of trips to - I remember, uh, 'cause he's a seven star with us. So I did remember I reached out to his h- uh, to New Orleans and I booked him a room in New Orleans -- this was a long time ago -- um, down there, um, for one of his trips. Um, that might be the extent of the traveling that we talked about there so yeah.

?: He...

AD: 'Cause we have - we have a casino down in New Orleans.

?: ...mention about religion?

AD: No, nothin', huh-uh.

TA: Political views?

AD: No. I was rackin' my brain on - on those two thinkin' about that and did not ever hear him talk about that.

WM: Uh, couple follow-up questions.

AD: Sure.

WM: William Minter, DEA. Um, are the text messages gonna be supplied as part of the subpoena?

EN: I'm sure. We will have a preservation notice. Uh, we got a lot of subpoenas that came in yesterday. But, uh, we'll be preserving all the documentary evidence that we have and turning it over.

WM: The one he texted you from.

AD: Gotcha. Yep, uh, it's [REDACTED]

WM: Um, when you identified [REDACTED] as girlfriend - did he ever state that - that was his girlfriend? Did you ever think like wife or anything else? What made you think that was his girlfriend?

AD: I believe he just told - said it was his girlfriend yeah. Um, yeah 'cause - yeah I - he must've said it, uh, told me that. And also, you know, not havin' the same last name is kind of like, uh, a flag too that, you know, but I, uh, they were together. That's all I knew. So yeah - but I knew they weren't married. So he did - he did - he must've told me that they weren't married. Yeah so...

WM: And then, um, I wanna revisit that whole weird thing, uh, or odd person.

AD: Yeah.

WM: Um, was he more odd like his mannerisms? Was he more odd by things he said? What made you feel that? Like was he standing too close to you when he - when you were talkin' to him? Was he just not lookin' at you while he gambled? Or what made you feel that way?

AD: I mean I just - I don't know if it was just the vibe he gave off or what. But it was just, um...

AD: He - not - yeah not really. I mean - but, you know, a lot of times we were talkin' he would just be focusing on, like, he wouldn't even stop the, like, playin' a lot of times when we were talkin'. Uh, which isn't uncommon. You know? People wanna gamble and, you know, they can talk to you at the same time. But, um, you know, just, um, I - I wish I had more examples. I just remember him bein' a weird guy. Like that's - that's all I can...

WM: It's more of a sense and a vibe?

AD: A sense. Yeah exactly. Yeah.

WM: When you negotiated, um, with him you talked about like, uh, talking about offers...

AD: Yeah.

WM: ...and things like that. Was he pretty happy to just take what you offered? Was he a hard negotiator? Did he try to get more?

AD: He - he tried to get more. But, um, uh, this was like, um, which is fine. You know? I mean he was - when he was actually gambling strong with us, uh, you know, no problem to give him a little extra to come in. And, you know, of what I offered him extra would be fine. Um, and then, like, when we cut off his offers even one other time I did uh, offer him like a thousand bucks to come on in and gamble. And, uh, he took advantage of it and kinda stiffed me on play. And then after that he knows better to - like I mean y- once you stiff someone on play you're not gettin' anything else from the host ever again until you prove that you can play. And then - so he didn't, uh, yeah so, um, yeah he - he - he pushed the envelope a little bit, tried to negotiate. But he also I had a feeling knew - most of these guys know where they stand with their play and what they warrant and what they don't warrant. So, um, you know, like once - once he felt that it was, like, it was fair that - what I was givin' him then he kinda backed off. So...

WM: Um, when he gambled or when you met him - so I'd like you to think back when you initially met him towards maybe towards the last time you met him, did you notice any changes in his appearance?

AD: No - nothin'.

WM: Like he looked older, sick, anything?

AD: No.

WM: When he came to gamble or times you met him, did he carry any baggage, fanny packs, anything out of the ordinary you would have noticed that stood out?

AD: No but a lot of people carry fanny packs. So it's like - I mean it's not that uncommon. I talked to yes- someone yesterday that had one. So...

WM: Yeah.

AD: ...it's kinda, um, yeah. But the - with...

So she transferred me and I told the lady, I said, "The shooter's on my floor. I think he's next door or he - he is nearby." And she started yelling, "He's on the 30th floor. He's on the 30th floor." And she hung up. And, uh, I think, I don't know, maybe 20 minutes went by and I - I turned off all the lights in my room. Um, I - well even before that I - I called my dad. I - I told him what was goin' on. I told him I couldn't get ahold of anybody and to please try to get in touch with the Las Vegas Police Department. Um, and I - I got down. I was checkin' in with my coworker. Um, I - I hung out by my door and, uh, I just sat there and waited. I kept peepin' through - through the hole in case there - there - the - the shooter took off, I - I could potentially identify him if - if he ran by my door. Um, and maybe about 20 minutes later I saw four, uh, police officers walk by. And then, um, my - my friend called me to check on me and maybe like 20 minutes, 30 minutes later, there were - there was two explosions and, um, and I - and I w- I was scared. I thought it was a bomb had gone off. I - I s- I started tellin' my buddy, [REDACTED] I said, "A bomb just went off." I - I go, "There was a bomb." And, um, and so then, uh, my - my coworker called me and said, "I think - I think they threw flash grenades or - or some kind of grenades." And - and right about that point, I heard some shots go off and then, uh, about ten minutes later my dad called me and said that the TV was reporting that - that they got him. And then about ten minutes later, um, the - someone from the police called me, called my cell phone and they asked if I believe that the - the shooter was potentially - well, they - they want to know what room I was There's, I mean, it's potential that the 32nd floor was, you know, that's pretty close to - to where I was. I mean, it's two floors up, six rooms down. And there were - the gunshots - the gunshots were full auto. And I could hear him st- stop, switch weapons and he sound like he was firing a - a sniper shots, just the tone of the weapon changed. It was from a (mimicking shooting sounds) to a (mimicking shooting sounds). I don't know how many shots. And then he would switch back to the - to the full auto.

CB: No I couldn't see anything else, just the - just the - the rounds goin' off and - and of course after, I think - I think after, um, they got him, uh, my dad called me to tell me that there was another shooter at the Bellagio. And I - I looked out the window and I could see the cop cars takin' off and - and I just - I just stayed down on the floor and - and kinda just waited.

PQ: Okay. Um, that's gonna be pretty much it. Okay? Um, Operator, this is the end of the interview. Same people are present. Current time is 0930 hours. Thank you.

JC: Um, you know, I haven't had that much acquaintance with her. Um, it would have to be less than two.

TA: So they didn't stay here very often?

JC: Most likely - no.

TA: Okay. Um...

JC: Not to my knowledge.

TA: ...and in your con- when was the first contact you had with her?

JC: Yes.

TA: And, um, going back to whenever she was on the property and - and you had dealings with her, uh, is there anything - before I get into questions, is there anything specific that stands out in your mind?

JC: Nothing at all.

TA: Okay. Um, no special request that she had?

JC: No.

TA: Never ask- did she ever ask for tickets? Anything specific?

JC: Not that I can recall.

TA: Okay. Um, when she was on the property would they - do you know if they were staying here or would they just come to play here?

JC: I know they were staying here in August.

TA: Okay. August of this year?

JC: Yes. I believe the 27th through the 29th.

?: How much do you have to play to get a VIP host?

JC: Uh, it depends. Um, you know, usually you'd have to be at least, what we consider a Diamond Member.

TA: And when somebody's assigned a host, um, is it normally - you make contact with them or they make contact with you if there's anything they need or?

JC: I would usually make contact with them first.

TA: Okay.

JC: And then they would make contact with me if they needed something.

TA: Okay. So and - when you were assigned to them and you made contact with them was there any f- or was there ever any follow up after that point?

JC: No.

TA: Okay. So you were never asked anything specific at all?

JC: No.

TA: So - and just to make sure this is clear - your dealings with her is when you were assigned to her, you would call her, tell who you were and ask if there was anything she needed to let you know.

JC: Or him.

TA: So either one of them?

JC: Either one of them.

TA: Okay. Well I don't really think there's anything else...

JC: Yeah.

TA: ...unless you guys have any questions?

JC: She did look familiar on TV and I - and I do remember talking with her about something, but it wasn't any time recently and it wasn't anything significant. apiece. Eh, we finally came to that, uh, he said he'd give me $500 apiece. I told him, "No I'm old - too old to be spending the rest of my life in federal prison, you know, and that I didn't make 'em. I only s- would sell the schematics if he was interested." Uh, he wasn't interested in that. He kept carrying on about, um, just, uh, anti-government stuff, uh, FEMA camps, uh, about, um - uh, he was saying how Katrina - he'd asked me if I remembered Katrina and said, um, "Well did..." He said, "That was just a dry run for law enforcement and military to start kickin' down doors and, um - uh, confiscating guns." And it kind of stuck in my mind about oh I mean - I - you but, I mean, he was kind of fanatical about this stuff and I just figured he's ano- another internet nut, you know, watching too much of it and believing too much of it. And, um, he kept on going on about it and which kinda kept turnin' me off about the guy, you know. Um, I told him once more that I would only sell the schematics for it, I didn't want anything to do with makin' 'em. Which I'm glad I didn't. Uh, even though I needed the money I was - still I had no intention of doing that. Um, he went on to s- uh, what was it he said, um, "Somebody has to wake up the American public and get them to arm themselves." And he said, "Sometimes sacrifices have to be made." And that's when I got up and said, "I'm sorry, you know, we couldn't do anything together but I have to go." And that's when I got on my bike and left. You know.

And, um, he said, "Yeah," and he pulled out his ID. And I - that's when I saw the name Paddock, you know, it just stuck in my mind, you know.

DL: Why - why would you ask him if he was a Nevada resident?

PH: Well usually when you run things on Backpage, uh, on this particular part of it it's to buy or sell guns. And one of the State laws is, you know, uh, they gotta be a, um, uh,

And what struck me odd was when he did the shooting it was right after those hurricanes. You know, I mean at first it was, uh, Irma...

DL: Mm-hm.

PH: ...then Maria and I believe that's when he did the shooting.

DL: Did he say why Katrina upset him?

PH: He just said, "It was a - a dry run for law enforcement and the military to start, uh, confiscating guns, you know, from the public."

PH: Was all we saying. You know, he kept going on about...

PH: "The public needs to arm themselves." Um, he was just too fanatical about stuff, you know. Like, I said he sounded like an internet nut.

PH: He was talking about FEMA camps and all that, you know, he was just saying the government's gonna crack down on everybody who has weapons.

DL: How long was your conversation? How long were you with him?

BP: And you understand this is being recorded?

JC: Affirm.

BP: Okay. Um, you were working the night of October 1. Can you tell me what you were doing and what brought you into this in - incident that we're investigating?

JC: Uh, approximately 2200 hours I received a call from Dispatch, uh, told me to go check the doors that - we have a hot SOS system which indicates which door is propped open for a long period of time.

BP: Okay.

JC: Um, on my patrol I was on the last room which was 30 - I was on my way to 32129. As I was approaching the stairwell from the 31st floor to the 32nd the - the door - the - the door that leads to the stairwell to the hallway was, uh, locked or secured - locked. And I thought it was out of the ordinary because those doors are always open.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

JC: Uh, so I dropped down to the 31st floor. I went down the hallway into the elevators - I believe it was the center core elevators - and then from there I walked all the way down to the last room on the left which is the door that leads into the stairwell. As I - as I observed a metal bracket that was keeping the door shut, I called our security dispatch. They stated they weren't aware and to contact engineering. I contacted engineering. They stated they weren't aware of the situation either. At that moment in time I heard noises which I assumed were drills or a, like, very loud drill. So I started walkin' away from the room. As I got in front of 32129 that's when I heard gunfire. As I got hit I - I was pinned in front of 32121 and 32123. I noticed I was bleeding. And at that moment in time I got over the radio and, uh, my mobile, uh, phone to contact dispatch that shots were fired and that I was hit. I gave 'em the location of the 32135 because that's where the shots were being, uh, coming from. Uh, later at that time when he dispersed a full - full magazine, uh, I don't know if he started shooting back outside. At that moment in time my shift manager [REDACTED] my two outside units [REDACTED] they arrived to the center core. At that moment in time he wasn't shooting out towards the hallway. That's when I breached and made my way down to the center core. After the center core, uh, four Metro officers showed up. At that moment in time I was given the green light to go downstairs - the 200 wing elevators - down to the baggage area.

BP: Okay. So I'm - I'm ju - I'm just gonna go back. So around 2200 dispatch contacts you, uh, via radio?

JC: It...

BP: ...sure.

JC: ...it's an acronym. I don't really know what it stands for. I know it's hotel operating something system.

BP: Okay. No worries. So you get a hot SOS - S-O-S - alarm and that alarm is tripped when a guest room door is left open for an ext - extended amount of time?

JC: Yes.

BP: Um, that alarm was coming from 32129?

JC: Yes.

BP: So as you're comin' up the stairs and so you're in the 100 wing...

BP: Um, as you get to 32 you check the door and the door is secured.

JC: Yes.

BP: Which is unusual. Um, you notify your dispatch - they don't know anything about it. They tell you to contact maintenance, um, you contact them - they don't know anything about it. So you go down to 31 - take an elevator back up to 32 and you go straight down the hallway into the fire exit that was secured. Um, those are double doors...

JC: Yes.

BP: ...so you have one door from the hallway leads into a little alcove and then the second door is what's in the stairs?

JC: Correct.

BP: And was it the hallway door or the interior door that was secured?

JC: The door that leads to the - the stairwell. So the inner one.

BP: Okay. So as you enter that little alcove area from the hallway - the stairwell door you see has a metal bracket...

BP: Um, could you tell where that noise was coming from?

JC: 32125.

BP: Okay. Um...

JC: Um, 32, uh, 135.

BP: Okay. So you hear a loud drilling coming from 32135. Could you tell if it was deep in the room or right by the doors?

JC: It was deep in the room...

BP: Okay.

JC: ...and it was pretty - pretty rapidly.

BP: Okay. So you hear this - you obviously know that's not a normal sound - so you start walking down the hallway, uh, toward the center core?

BP: Okay. So it's goin' on for a while, um, you're wounded - your guys can't get to you 'cause y - there's the long hallway?

JC: Correct.

BP: And so at some point in time, um, you decide - do you think that hey, you know, he is no longer firing down the hallway - he's focusing all of his attention outside?

KM: Sure.

CJ: Yeah. The attorney for [REDACTED] and for [REDACTED]

DC: I'm the attorney for [REDACTED], not for...

CJ: For [REDACTED] representing [REDACTED] Sorry about that. His name is [REDACTED] uh, [REDACTED] and also [REDACTED] with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and, uh, Sergeant, uh, Detective Sergeant Jerry MacDonald, M-A-C-D-O-N-A-L-D, with, uh, Las Vegas Metropolitan Police. Is that - everybody got that right the information on that? Okay. Um [REDACTED] first off what we'd like to do is, uh, for - for - just have you describe to us what your responsibilities are as, um, an [REDACTED]

KM: Okay. Um, I take care of reservations for all sorts of guests. Um, high-end, low-end, medium-end guests, and I take care of room reservations, complimentaries, um, restaurant reservations, show reservations, pretty much anything that can go on at [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] I'm here to assist with and, um, be your point of contact when you come in and visit.

CJ: Okay. And how long have you been doing that?

KM: About six years now.

CJ: Okay. And that six years that you've been doin' that have that been the whole time with [REDACTED]

KM: It has been, yes.

CJ: Okay.

KM: This is, uh, the first company I worked for movin' out here.

CJ: Okay. And you moved out here from [REDACTED] You had mentioned that before as we were talking.

KM: Mm-hm.

CJ: Okay. When you are, uh, assigned you talked about the two different - or the different levels of - of assignments. How is it that you become assigned to a sp- a specific, um - um, patron or person that comes to the hotel?

KM: We meet them on the casino floor and then once you, uh, intr- get introduced to them. I'm sure, you know, other hosts might be doin' it as well but you have to bring 'em in on - on a trip to get assigned to them. Um, however there's other instances where, like, uh, casinos might leave and go to another property. Then that person mo- might get reassigned to another casino host as well which would be another way of getting, you know, kind of assigned to somebody. But mainly, uh, you have to book a trip or help them with comps or anything that to, um, get assigned as their designated host.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

CJ: Okay. So then there - that - that - that - that - that lends - there's - you have a supervisor or somebody that you - that's over you that helps you with those assignments or is that strictly - once you're that [REDACTED] you take care of all that?

KM: Uh, when it's a reassignment then it usually gets, um - um, reassigned by our supervisor - my supervisor but if you're just booking a trip that gets assigned automatically.

CJ: Okay.

KM: And you don't need, uh, any approval for that.

CJ: Okay. Okay. And so then when if - if who you're hosting here wants to go to another hotel do you go with them or do you just stay on property here and work with them.

KM: Stay here. I wouldn't awkward- I don't assist with any other room reservations across the strip.

CJ: Okay. Okay. All right. Um, so what we'd like to do now [REDACTED] let's go into the relationship that you have with, uh, this, uh, [REDACTED] Um, to start with, how is it that you first became attached to him to know - and - and to know him.

KM: I met him about a year into [REDACTED] and he did have a previous host before me but that host did leave the company to work for another company and - and then I got reassigned to him at the time, um, who my, you know, department head was at the time reassigned me to him so he could continue getting the comps and treatment that he gets when he comes in and visits. So, um, I didn't, um, it was, like, a reassignment basically. It wasn't, uh, somethin' that I reached out to him on the casino floor and then booked a trip like I mentioned earlier. I didn't get assigned. But, um, in his instance the other [REDACTED] left and he needed another [REDACTED] we just reassigned at - at that point in time.

CJ: Okay. Now when, uh, with your assignment then to him are you still then assigned to other patrons or are you - are you strictly his [REDACTED]

KM: No, I have numerous people that I take care of.

CJ: Okay.

KM: Close to about 2000.

CJ: Okay. So when you were assigned to him after a year that you were here you mentioned you've been here about five years, is that what you said? Uh...

KM: No, I was about maybe two or three years into the [REDACTED] working.

CJ: Okay.

KM: But one year into [REDACTED]

CJ: So then the total amount of time that then - that you have been his [REDACTED] has been how long?

KM: About maybe five to six years.

CJ: Okay. So you've got - you've developed a relationship with him?

KM: Of course I did.

CJ: Uh, just I mean, that personal working type relationship.

KM: Of course.

CJ: And that - that then would be the, uh, normal course of your responsibilities with all of your patrons, not just him, but with all of the patrons that you have.

KM: Of course. Yeah. I was there when he needed to come in and visit and take care of anything that he needed around the resort and I was his point of contact here.

CJ: So then going with all - with - with the, uh, globally with all of the people that you [REDACTED] um, how does that work with your working them that is your contact? Uh, and honestly that's just to help us understand that because I don't think anybody in here understands how that [REDACTED] How is it that you then helped that person? Are you on phone call, are you at their side, or how does that work?

KM: We're not at their side all the time. You - you obviously - you take calls when they come in or if they want to come in and visit they call you or text you or e-mail you. Whatever the, you know, way they communicate with you they're - you know, that's where I come in and take care of what they need whether it be if they just come in for a show or come in for a dinner or come in for a night's stay or a week's stay. You know, it varies on every guest but that's where I come in and make all those things happen when they want to visit so it's - you don't have to worry about anything. It's all - it's all done when you get here.

CJ: Okay. Okay. So let's go back to if you can remember the very best that you can to the first time that you met with him and tell us about him and how the -the interaction was and the assignments or any of the things that you did. That first time that you, uh, met with him.

KM: Sure, um, when I, uh, reached out to him after I got reassigned to him just introduced myself. Um, I - I did bring him in for a trip and kind of got to know him a little bit. Um, just my first encounter with him I did notice that he wasn't the most personable guy. He was kind of an introvert if - if that's a good way of puttin' it and he kept to himself when he visited and he didn't have a girlfriend at the time when he first came to the resort or when I took him over. That wasn't the first time he's been here but the first time I, you know, started interacting with him. He didn't have a girlfriend at the time. And, uh, he was just, uh, you know, just kind of kept to himself. Did his gaming when he's here. He - he enjoyed gaming a lot and I was there to take care of, you know, all the reservations and comps before he left.

CJ: Okay. So when he came is - was he considered a high-end roller or a low-end or middle or how was that?

KM: He - he was high-end when I first took him over as well.

CJ: And - and what - what constitutes them for to become a high - high-end? What do they have to do? And again that's ignorance on my - on our part to understand where they get to that point.

KM: If you're losin', you know, close to about 10,000 plus per trip that's kind of when you start becomin' a high-end guest where we're gonna, you know, uh, reach out to you and, uh, make sure you're well taken care of. Um, some of the lower end guests we might not get a chance to meet every time they come in just 'cause there's so many people that we deal with but the higher end guests we do, uh, try to reach out and make a point of especially, you know, uh, you know, pers- you know, face-to-face contact while they're here. Go on the casino floor, meet 'em, see how they're doin', and, uh, that's what I did every time he came in. I was always, you know, taking care of whatever he needed.

CJ: Okay. So at - going back to that first time that we were talking about, uh, anything, uh - uh, non - I guess non-specific, uh, those things that you mentioned that he, uh, had you do? Anything out of the ordinary or there - that he had you do?

KM: Um, not - never. Not over the years I've taken care of him he's never asked for anything out of ordinary. He's always pretty easy going when he came in. He - he did his, you know, we have a - he had a certain level of play at any time and he was pretty consistent with that and, um, never asked for any, you know, specific special treatments or anything like some high-end guest do but, um, he did his gaming. I comped based on his play accordingly and, um, he was a pretty easy going customer and if he was - if he was losing, um, he had a credit line established here. He would always pay his markers back on time and he's kind of, like, the perfect customer if you're a [REDACTED] um, for a good way of puttin' it. He was, you know, never had any issues or arguments with him. Uh, never complained about much, you know, when it came to gaming or losing or anything like that. And, uh, I mean, yeah, does that answer your question?

CJ: Sure.

KM: Okay.

CJ: Absolutely. So as I - as I - as I hear what you're talking about from - from the very beginning up 'til - we haven't talked about the last time you had contact with him that you're talking about that he was - during that whole contact he was that way?

KM: Mm-hm.

CJ: That he was all those things that you just described and don't need to go back over 'em. So, uh, now let's - so then let's - going in the middle of all that I'd like to ask some s- uh, specific questions about that. Was - would be - were there ever times in all of the - the association that he had you arrange or that you knew that was arranged for him to have prostitutes at all?

KM: Never. Never had that encounter or discussion with him on any visit since I first met him.

CJ: Okay. What about drugs?

KM: Never asked for any.

CJ: Okay.

KM: And I - he never really drank much on the casino floor.

CJ: That was my next question.

KM: Yeah.

CJ: Is alcohol.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

KM: Yeah, I never seen him overly intoxicated. Um, he may have had some drinks here and there but I've never encountered him on the casino floor where he's, you know, heavily - heavily drunk or anything. He's always pretty - pretty coherent when he's gaming and he always just kind of, uh, just kind of keeps to his own and, uh, he's just very easily to deal with on any given time he was here on property.

CJ: Okay. So when he's out here on property, uh, are you - are you on property when he's on property?

KM: Generally, yeah. I mean, here, you know, except for Sunday, Mondays except for certain times when I come in on my weekends.

CJ: Right.

KM: But he's usually makin' trips on Thursday, Friday, Saturday. How most people do they come in on the weekend or sometimes he might come in during the week because, uh, he is, you know, he lived nearby. So he might have more frequent trips than most guests, but, um, yeah I was usually here on property when he came in.

CJ: Okay. Okay. Now going back to - to the beginning when you said that he wasn't - he didn't have this current girlfriend with him.

KM: Mm-hm.

CJ: Did he have anybody with him besides her?

KM: No.

KM: Nah, there wasn't.

CJ: So he's by himself?

KM: Correct.

CJ: Okay. Um, during that time - and I want to talk about the girlfriend here in just a second but be- during that time before, uh, she became part of the picture was there ever anybody else around him that you saw that he conversed with, met with.

KM: Nah.

CJ: Ate with? Anything?

KM: It was always just him when he came in and he gamed and - or gambled and - and, you know, I just took care of what his - what his needs were back then.

CJ: Okay. Uh, and just briefly so I understand just so everybody understands when you say he pays his markers, what - what does that mean?

KM: So he does have a, um - um - um, a credit line here on property and, you know, people use that to draw markers from. Meaning, like, they take money out of their line and then they gamble with it and if he were to be losing at the end of his trip he'd always have whatever's outstanding paid back in a timely matter.

CJ: So...

KM: Usually give - we usually give customers within a month to pay back anything.

somewhere else or...

KM: Never.

CJ: Okay. And tell me about that. What - how, uh, when you first met her and then talk about her now through what you know about her.

KM: Sure. Um, I don't know a whole lot of her background personally but, um, when he brought her in for the first time I remember introducing her to me and saying, you know, this is [REDACTED] uh, my girlfriend. And since that first encounter they were always, uh, usually visiting together. He never really visited by himself since she came into the picture. Um, they usually played side-by-side when they were on the casino floor. Um, but, uh, they were just usually always, you know, always seemed compatible together and seemed like they always had a good time when they came in and, um, I mean, that's all I really know about her. I don't know her - her whole history, meaning, like, her work history or anything like that.

CJ: Mm-hm.

KM: But, um, I just know that was his, you know, new girlfriend and, you know, when I first met and that's pretty much it. They were always together every time they came out.

CJ: When you - when you mentioned they were playing side-by-side. Is it, uh, I mean, they're each playing - playing what kind of games and how are they - are they doing that? They both playing was she just watching?

- KM: They were - no they were - sometimes it was him playing but she might be playing also. Um, but if they're on the casino floor together they're probably playin' side-by-side or she might be just watching him just kind of varied on any given time. But, um, they generally played video poker. That was their predominant game and they didn't really mess with slots or table games that much for either of 'em.
- CJ: Okay. Okay. And, uh, besides on the casino floor gambling did you see them together anywhere else in the hotel, uh, and - and wherever. Restaurants, bars, rooms, whatever?
- KM: Never s- I mean, I've never gone up to their room to see them but, um, I set up, you know, restaurant reservations for them frequently and, uh, set up show reservations for them and, um, other than that I mean, I did go to get spa treatments and, uh, salon treatments and - but I didn't go up there to actually be up there with them physically but I assisted with most of those reservations.
- CJ: Okay. The - did you ever have, uh, a time where you spoke, uh, with [REDACTED] alone where you just had a conversat- just casual conversation or what- whatever with her.
- KM: Not that often no because when they were on the casino floor they were usually together generally. Um, there might have been some cases in the past that I can't recall. Maybe just, like, set somethin' up for dinner or somethin' like that but it was never anything, um, memorable or anything that, you know, to bring about that she would be discussing anything with me. CJ: Uh, and then when you made a- arrangements for them with these other places, restaurants, bars, whatever, shows, uh, they were doing that to together then?

KM: Correct.

CJ: Okay. Uh, now with her in the picture from that time until current and we'll go at that here again in just a second, were there ever any times that there was somebody else besides [REDACTED]

KM: Not to my knowledge.

CJ: You didn't see anybody like that?

KM: It was always just them two when they came in and I set up their suite for them and that was pretty much for, uh, over the years since she came into the picture.

CJ: Okay. Now your relationship with him just a little bit. Uh, let's go into that. Going back to the pre-[REDACTED] Uh, conversations, casual conversations, uh, that she had with him, discussions, whatever. Just what your relationship was like and what you talked about.

KM: Sure. Um, I didn't get too much involved with his personal life. I - I knew what he did previously when I first kind of met him and, uh, knew he was, uh, retired and he made pretty good money, uh, doin' investments and what not in the stock market from what he told me. And, um, but other than that, like, I never really went to dinner with him that often. He was kinda - he just kinda stuck to himself. You know, he didn't really want to - he wasn't very personable is that - that's the best way to put it. He was a little bit of an introvert I would say when I, you know, first started talking to him and taking care of him and I just kind of left it at that. You know, he just kind of came in, did his thing, asked for stuff. You know, around the resort that I could assist with and that's where I kind of, you know, came in and took care of those items for him. But in regards to, like, I don't know - know if - what - what, like, what, uh, political side he's on. I - I don't know any of that, honestly. I never really got to know him that - that in-depth. But, um, I just knew that he liked to come in and game on video poker and I was there to take care of anything he needed here on property.

CJ: Okay.

KM: And that's my main responsibility with him.

CJ: And because of the circumstances of why we're here, uh, did he ever talk to you about guns?

KM: Never.

CJ: Did he ever...

KM: I didn't know he had - I would have never even thought he knew how to fire a gun. I m- I mean, just to be honest, just the way his mannerisms are and would have never thought of that in a million years.

KM: Never. We didn't really talk about current events.

CJ: Okay.

KM: We just - we - we discussed video poker and how he's doin', if he's hittin' jackpots or whatnot. But we kinda - it was just, like, a - a work relationship. I mean, I didn't get too in-depth with his personal life or - or anything like that. So, um, he kind of kept it that way so I kept it that way and it was just a very work related relationship.

KM: You know, I didn't really - I didn't see him outside of work ever and he never really requested to hang out outside of work or anything like that and...

CJ: Mm-hm.

KM: ...I just his point of contact here at the [REDACTED] mainly.

CJ: Uh, I don't know if this is part of your responsibilities and you can help us understand that. So he - he comes here and he's here for a certain amount of time and he's gambling and he's winning or losing, or whatever. Let's - let's talk about when he's winning the money and he goes to cash out are - are you part of any of that when he goes to get his money if he wins to leave.

KM: No, that's done by our operations team in slots and they handle all the markers being distributed and paying back. If you do win we usually request you repa- uh, pay back your markers first if it's above your credit line. So, like, let's just say you're down 50,000 or something. If you win 100,000 jackpot we're not gonna give you 100,000, we're gonna say, um, get the 50,000 back then you'll get the 50,000.

CJ: Okay.

KM: So, that's generally done by the operations team. I don't - I don't - I just manage the comps and, you know, the reservations part of it.

CJ: Okay.

KM: And the marketing.

CJ: And then when he, uh, when he leaves does he let you know when he's leaving?

KM: We usually set a established, uh, checkout date. I mean, there's sometimes where he extends for whatever reason he wants to stay a little bit longer, try to win some money back, or if he is winning he might stay longer. But, um, I mean, yeah. Usually he'd be, like, hey I'm - I'm checkin' out tomorrow, you know, I usually review everybody's comps before they check out the night before because I'm here in the evening. I'm not here in the morning so usually all my guests I say, you know, when you're leavin', uh, the night before or get in touch with me and let me know if you're KM: Never. No. We - we can't accept tips here.

CJ: Okay.

KM: As a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] has a policy about not accepting that and none of the [REDACTED] do. But, um, I don't know how he was with tipping jackpots. Normally it's a - a standard practice if you hit a jackpot you give tips but I wouldn't be able to answer how much he's tippin' or if he's a big tipper or a small tipper. Um, that'd be somethin' that operations would probably know about in slots and oper...

CJ: So that's...

KM: Yes.

CJ: Okay. And any con- conversations or whatever, uh - uh, interaction that you had with both of them during that other than what you're talking. Is there anything else?

KM: Nothin' on a personal level. No. It was just, you know, kind of takin' care of stuff while they're here, like, with reservations but anything beyond, you know, the work, you know, conversations there wasn't really any of that.

CJ: Okay.

KM: It just - it - it just wasn't part of their nature. They were always just kind of kept to themselves any time they came in. They weren't, um, they - they just weren't very personable people. That's just a blunt way of putting it. Um, it was just a work relationship between both of them and me.

CJ: Okay. And you. Were - during that trip were there - was there ever anybody else with them besides [REDACTED] and him together?

KM: No.

CJ: You never did see anybody with them together?

KM: Mm-mm.

CJ: Um, if they are unable to get a hold of you. Uh, let's go to - stayin' with that weekend, was there ever a time that they weren't able to get a hold of you that another [REDACTED] had contact with them while they were here during that tournament?

KM: Not for that weekend. No. I was - I was here and I was available.

CJ: Okay.

KM: But, uh, I don't know if they might have spoke to any other [REDACTED] on duty, I mean, who have a [REDACTED] office. He might have stopped in there. I'm not too sure. But, uh, I'm - I'm usually here in the evening and he usually, you know, comes to me for any - any requests. He doesn't go to anybody else.

CJ: Okay. Okay. Jerry you have any questions?

JM: I do. Operator this, uh, Sergeant MacDonald, uh, talking now. Um, [REDACTED] a lot of these have already been asked and answered, which is great, so I can get through this pretty quick. Uh, you've already talked about gameplay a little bit. Um, mostly video poker and slots. No - no table games?

KM: Uh, not slots. Just video poker.

JM: Video poker?

KM: Yeah.

JM: Okay. And, um, let me see. We already talked about that a lot. So, the different tournaments that he would come here, mostly slot tournaments or just - was there any other type of tournaments he - he would come to town for or...

KM: Uh, there was giveaways as well.

JM: Giveaways?

KM: Where you - you earn 'x' amount of points and you get 'x' amount of tickets and then you put the tickets in a drum and then we draw 'em one by one for the prizes that were given away. Usually cash and free credit prizes.

JM: All right. So did he ever win anything big or...

KM: He has. Um, last - last year he won, uh, we had a - a luxury car giveaway. He won a car. But he didn't take the car. He took the cash prize. And it was probably roughly around 90,000 I would say. And then several months after that there was another giveaway where we were just - not givin' away cars but we were just givin' away cash and free credit and he had first place in that one as well. I want to say that one was at least 150,000 cash.

JM: Okay. Okay. Um, the next question I want to ask is, uh, I know you talked about you - you - you mentioned that he really didn't associate with anybody. It was just [REDACTED] that was with him.

KM: Mm-hm. Yes.

JM: That relationship felt really quick. I mean, you're in the people business, right? So you assess people all the time. What - what was your assessment of their relationship? Was it - was it lovey-dovey? What - what was it - were they touching and affectionate with each other or how would you assess that?

KM: I didn't see a whole lot of affection. Um, any time I was dealing with them I mean, I did set up dinner reservations and show - show reservations with them but I didn't really see them, like, you know, arm around arm, you know, you know, like, public display of affection, you know, all the time. I didn't see any of that. Um, uh, but I mean, they seemed like they liked each other. They didn't seem like there was, uh, anything out of the ordinary in my eyes when I dealt with them. But, um, in regards to all that, you know, public displays I didn't really see a whole lot of that.

JM: Did you - the thought ever cross your head that - that their - their relationship was more, like, business and less kind of personal or did it ever cross your mind?

KM: Never. Never. No. I just figured with the kind of personality he has that was just kind of maybe normal to have that kind of relationship with him.

JM: Right. Um, sometime around August of 2017 I think - I think you mentioned he was here for a tournament?

KM: Yes.

JM: Um, any recollection of a woman named [REDACTED] that he may have had interaction with? Um, there's some sort of, uh, lead that's led us to believe that somebody named [REDACTED] may have charged some, like, expensive candles, uh, to - to - I - I guess to his room or something along those lines. Does that ring a bell to you at all?

KM: It does not, no. Not for that visit.

JM: No - no woman named [REDACTED] at all?

KM: No.

JM: Didn't - didn't come back...

KM: No.

JM: Okay.

CJ: But not just for that visit but any other time? You know, that...

KM: Not to my knowledge. I mean, he - he - he's a very frequent guest. Um, probably here once a month, you know, over the years I've dealt with him. I - I mean, is it - there's at least a hundred trips I can, you know, remember dealing with him. Um, but I can't remember a [REDACTED] off the top of my head.

JM: But if somebody - if somebody was in the hotel and they were in one of the boutique shops and they wanted to purchase something and charge it to his room is that something you necessarily would know?

KM: I wouldn't know about that. No. And they would have to be a share with on the room to room charge. So, um, I mean, there's - there's instances where guests visit. Like, people that I take care of I take care of, like, just booking you let's just say and then your buddy comes with you or whoever comes with you and you can add them to the room after check-in. I would never even know about that. So I - off the top the, you know, dealing with his reservations I don't recall a - a [REDACTED], you know, bein' there for that specific weekend or any other weekend.

JM: Okay. I just got one more question from me. Um, [REDACTED] do you as a - as a [REDACTED] do you maintain any type of records on any given hotel guest that you're assigned to?

KM: We keep records on their Red Card account which is the system that we use to track all the comps and everything. We - I make notes on each individual account, like, things they like and, um, mainly it's just, uh, the amenities that they like. You know, some - some for high-end guests we provide amenities when they check in and it's hard to remember everybody because we deal with a lot of people but that's where most of my, um, notes are left on accounts and I don't keep, like, a personal, um, a personal sheet or anything like that on - on him or any other guests. It's mainly on their - their actual account.

JM: And those notes are probably entered into some sort of hotel database or something?

KM: It's - it's in our - yeah, our internal system here that we use to manage our comps for, uh, for guests.

JM: Got it. Um, and you've already asked the question about the tipping so I can get rid of that one. Um, I guess the last question for me [REDACTED] is when you - when you found out and I don't know when you found out, um, that [REDACTED] is the KM: I - I just couldn't - it was just totally left field. I mean, when I saw - I first saw her name and picture show up on the TV when I was watching it on the news and I just - I - I couldn't put it together. I was, like, I mean, I think know her but I - it's just you - you see stuff on the news all the time. You just never see people that you know or I haven't personally and especially somethin' like this magnitude and I just, you know, I couldn't believe. Once I put it together I was, like, I think I know that, you know, [REDACTED] It sounds so familiar and I know that face. I think she's always with [REDACTED] and I just - I couldn't believe that this is even - I was, like, what does she have to do with all of this? I mean, just couldn't - couldn't wrap my head around it and it just - I'm still flabbergasted to this day about it 'cause just never would have thought in a million years that either of them could have been capable of somethin' like this.

JM: Um, and that leaves me with one more question.

KM: Sure.

JM: Where - where - where did - where did [REDACTED] indicate that he was from. I mean, he'd indicate he was from, uh, Las Vegas? Reno? Phoenix? Mesquite?

KM: Yeah. He indicated to me that he lived in and - and was from, uh, Mesquite.

CJ: I just a couple of others. Um, outside of your responsibilities as his host did you ever have other association with him or meet with him or, uh, go to dinner or anything like that with him?

KM: Never. No I never met with him outside of work and, um, besides a few slot event functions that we had that included dinner, um, I never went to - to dinner with him or [REDACTED] on, you know, personally when they visited. They always just wanted to go to dinner by themselves.

CJ: Okay. What I'd like for you to do is compare him - you've talked about him being very - just almost a recluse when he comes here. Compare him with what you do with somebody that's kind of, like, the opposite. Uh, 'cause really what you painted a picture is somebody that's just essentially really boring. Uh, taking care of them obviously what you're doing and a very good job of that but what are some of the things that are - that are different about - so different about him that you're talking about compared to somebody else?

KM: Was mainly just his personality. You know, he just liked to keep to himself is just the best way to put it. Um, never really asked for me to join him on anything. In return I never really asked to go with him on anything and, uh, there's, you know, on the flip side there's - there are guests that when they come in hey they want to go golfin' with

Because you become friends with this people and, um, they enjoy your company. But I just didn't feel that with him. Um, never really invited me anywhere and I just left it at that kind of relationship. But there are guests that yeah, any time people come in, like, for on the flip side like that are more personable and, uh, I - I do go do things with them. Um, mainly on property but, um, I do - I just never did that with him or [REDACTED]

CJ: Okay. And would - would he ever come here without making contact with you first?

KM: Generally, no. Uh, I mean, there might have been an instance where I might have been on vacation or something but I would say nine times out of ten he's callin' or texting me to come in or e-mailing me.

CJ: Okay. This Red Card info that you mentioned that Sergeant MacDonald was talking about, um, is that something that, uh, we would be able to have access to? Could...

KM: I - I'm not too sure. Uh, I - I don't know...

KM: Yeah when I first met him I asked him, you know, what's, you know, what - where are you - obviously where do you live and all that stuff. But, uh, he told me Mesquite and I was, like, you know, uh, are - are you - what do you do? And then he's, like, I'm retired. You know, I made, you know, money doing, uh, stock market investments and whatnot and, uh, I just kind of left that at that. You know, I mean, if someone's retired I'm not gonna question...

GM: Yeah.

KM: ...what their work history is after that. Um, I knew he was a great player. I looked at his history before I even reached out to him and introduced myself but that's just kind of where I left it, you know, when I - when I first encountered him.

GM: Did you guys ever discuss any previous relationships that he had? Did he ever talk to you about, um, other relationships that he had with his family or friends or other women? Anything like that?

KM: Never had that conversation with him and, like, the previous [REDACTED] that he had he never really talked about that host either that much. GM: Okay. So and, again, I think they covered that but nothing - nothing relating to politics that seemed odd to you?

KM: Yeah, not to my knowledge, no.

GM: Or you guys never discussed any religion or any strange ideology that he might have, anything like that?

KM: He never discussed any of that with me.

GM: Did he have anything, um, out of the ordinary that you would have thought was maybe quirky or odd, um, relating to his mannerisms or things like that? In other words, some of the things that we had heard was that there was potentially a germophobia issue or anything like that. Did you see anything that you would - you would think that, you know, mentally or - or behaviorally - behaviorally would be askew or odd?

KM: No- nothing to allude to what has occurred. I mean, he just - he was an introvert like I mentioned. He has, you know, a way of dealing with everybody here when he came in and visited and he has a way of dealing with me. You know, not being as personable as other people might be when they come in and visit but I just, you know, looking at it in total I never had anything where, you know, an alarm would go off and say hey, you know, this is kind of weird. JC: He said, uh, he was on 32nd floor, uh, 32135 and he had been hit in the leg. He was bleeding but he was okay. And we immediately rolled paramedics for him and contacted the police department. Um, told him to leave the hallway and immediately sent my armed officers up there and then coordinated the, uh, AMR/CCFD.

BH: Okay. Now who-who actually gave him those directions do you know?

JC: Directions for what?

BH: O-over the radio wh-what to do.

JC: Me.

BH: You did - you personally did?

JC: Uh-huh.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

BH: Okay. Um, so he's hit in the legs - he's hit in the leg so he thinks it's a pellet gun.

JC: Right.

BH: Okay.

JC: Cause it was a small - he said wh-what hit him was small so he thought it was...

BH: Okay.

JC: ...a pellet gun is what he stated.

BH: Did he-did he say did he hear any loud n...

JC: Yes.

BH: Noises or anything like that?

JC: Uh-huh. He said he could hear the loud popping. It sounds like there's shots being fired.

BH: Okay. An-but he thinks he's hit with a pellet gun?

JC: Right.

BH: Okay. Um, did that sound odd to you when he r- reports loud gunshot noises but he thinks he hit with a pellet gun?

JC: Yes - yes.

BH: Okay.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

JC: Uh, I - I presumed that because, you know, the adrenaline he was experiencing that it may have been something worse but you know he just may not have felt it to that degree yet.

BH: Okay. Um, so when you say you guys contacted AMR - did you guys call 911?

JC: Uh-huh.

BH: Okay. Um, so you guys - so do you know who called 911?

JC: Um, I don't recall. I wanna say it was - usually it was [REDACTED]

BH: Okay [REDACTED]

JC: [REDACTED]

BH: Okay.

JC: Or - or [REDACTED] One or - either of the two officers in the back usually make the call.

BH: Okay.

JC: While the officer in the front, um, coordinates the units to respond.

BH: Okay. Um, is there any possibility that maybe we didn't call 91 that maybe we called AMR directly?

JC: No we have a direct line right from dispatch and it goes right to the CCFD dispatch and they send AMR/CCFD.

BH: Okay okay. So police weren't notified at this point - this is straightly - this is medical call.

JC: Right yeah.

BH: Okay all right.

JC: To my knowledge, uh, I believe it was, um, [REDACTED]

BH: Okay.

JC: ...who contacted the police department.

BH: Okay and do you remember at wha- at what point during all of these events did he do that?

JC: It was while we were doing medical. He was doing police.

BH: Okay. Um, all right.

JC: So far as I know.

BH: So, uh, so you getting that information from-from [REDACTED] that he's injured

JC: Uh-huh.

BH: Uh, you said you-you responded and sent other officers up.

JC: I sent my armed officers up.

(Background).

BH: Okay do you remember how many you sent?

JC: I sent two initially.

BH: Okay.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

JC: Believe it was, uh, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] with my other units to bring in, uh, emergency personnel.

BH: Okay.

JC: At that time we didn't know what was going on so we assumed that the injuries to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] were - was an isolated thing.

BH: Okay. And, uh, what type of uniform does [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] wear?

JC: They wear the - the bright greenish yellow shirts.

BH: Okay.

JC: And, uh, the shorts. They're bike officers.

BH: Okay.

JC: The black shorts and like bright greenish yellow shirts with a duty belt and obviously their side-arms.

BH: Okay. Um, did anyone that was sent up there - did any of them - were any of them wearing a suit? Was there any type of manager or?

JC: Our managers do all wear suits, um, that would be [REDACTED] um, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and obviously they also responded.

BH: [REDACTED] what now?

JC: [REDACTED]

BH: Spell that for me?

JC: [REDACTED]

BH: And how do you spell [REDACTED] last name?

JC: [REDACTED]

BH: Okay. So those three gentlemen went as well.

JC: Of course.

BH: Okay. And were there any other - so-so the two armed officers, the three managers was there anybody else that went up on the floor?

JC: On the initial call? Those are the ones that I sent. I sent the two guards - the managers automatically go and then my other guys were setting up. However pretty much all of my armed units went up.

BH: They all started coming up?

JC: Uh-uh.

BH: Okay.

JC: Uh-huh.

BH: All right, um, were you aware was there any other employees on the floor?

JC: Which floor?

BH: On the 32nd floor.

JC: I don't know.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

BH: Okay. Was there any radio traffic that any other of- uh, personnel was on the floor?
In the hallway with [REDACTED]

JC: Um, I did - as soon as we got that call saying are units up there, um, I know [REDACTED] was up there. I know [REDACTED] went up there, um, I think after they arrived is when Metro came in force.

BH: Okay.

JC: It was very quick.

BH: Okay. So you felt like it was a quick response up to the floor? Okay.

JC: I - I honestly think they knew about it before we did.

BH: Okay.

JC: So 'cause it was just - it was just too quick for 'em to be there.

BH: Okay and they-they arrived - where did they arrive?

JC: Everywhere.

BH: Okay.

JC: Um, there primary place for us to receive Metro units is roll up door # 9 'cause that gives them kind of a-an easy way for them to get to us - into our security office and then we can take them anywhere very quickly from there.

BH: Okay.

JC: But we had Metro units arriving from every entrance.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

BH: So when, um, when this transpires wh- can you give me a-a approximate timeline or if you know better a more detail timeline of from the time - what time was it when [REDACTED] radios down that he's been shot?

JC: That was, um, that was right at- just after 10:00 'cause usually around 10:15 is when we leave so we had about ten minutes approximately. So around just after 10:00 is when the call came in and then, um, [REDACTED] obviously put out the active shooter, um, those-the two calls were very close to each other but I-I couldn't give you an exact minute.

BH: Okay.

JC: Um...

BH: So you feel within the first 5 minutes after 10:00 - does that - is that kinda where were leaning towards or? What 20-2205? Past that? Before that?

JC: Probably closer to 2210 I would say.

BH: Okay.

JC: Pretty close.

BH: Okay.

JC: Because like I said at fifteen is when we usually go and then we had almost ten minutes.

BH: So when that comes in you send your guys up - when do you - when - about what time do you think the calls made to 911?

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

JC: Uh, probably about a minute after we - after [REDACTED] called us we got the information that he was hit. We got his information to make sure...

BH: Is that-is that the call to-to medical or is that call to the police?

JC: That's medical.

BH: Okay that's medical.

JC: Th-the police call, um, as I understand was being made while two of the dispatchers up front were coordinating medical. The dispatchers in the back were contacting...

BH: Okay.

JC: ...Police department and making notifications through, uh, MGM.

BH: Guys are killin' me here. Okay, um, so in that time frame we've got guys going up the tower - what time do you think they arrived up on the floor?

JC: They were probably there probably a minute - two minutes later. It was real quick.

BH: A quic- was a quick dispatch okay.

JC: Yeah.

BH: You know - did they put anything out over the radio at that point?

JC: Who?

BH: The-the officers that hit the floor - the armed officers.

JC: Um, it was more traffic from [REDACTED] that point, um.

BH: Okay.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

JC: He said everybody up on the floor and then we started getting instructions from Metro as to where to move our people and where - start evacuations and whatnot.

BH: Okay. And then, uh, at that point were you guys being told about any gun shots or were there any other calls coming in - in dispatch?

JC: We were told that there was shots fired - there were several transmissions from, uh, [REDACTED] where we could hear the popping.

BH: Okay.

JC: Um, and he told us, you know, there-there's shots being fired now and that's when I told him to get where he - from where he is get to the elevator - where our guys were coming up and obviously so he could get out of there due to his injuries. But he had already identified the-the room in question.

BH: Okay.

JC: But, um.

BH: Do you-so you know why [REDACTED] was up there on the 32nd floor?

JC: He was assigned as the - one of our tower patrol units, um, I don't know if it was on a regular patrol or if he was responding to a hot sos room - which is - are you familiar with hot sos?

BH: Uh-huh.

JC: Okay. So, um, he could have been either one but that's why he was there.

BH: Okay and - so he - when he calls down originally he-he speaks to [REDACTED] that's correct?

JC: No he was on the radio. He spoke to me.

BH: Okay spoke to you on the radio and then...

JC: When he called on his-on his phone.

BH: On the cell phone he speaks to [REDACTED]

JC: Uh-huh.

BH: Okay perfect. All right. Um, so after you-the police units start to arrive on scene, uh, what transpires after that?

JC: Okay after the initial units arrived there were, uh, there was coordination on the-the 32nd floor and that's when we started getting directions from Metro as to what they wanted us to do and where to move people. Um, but it was basically all from the managers at that point.

BH: Okay. All right, is there anything that you can think of that would be helpful at this point?

JC: Let's see - um, there was a call - that was discarded about a-a vehicle at Luxor - a black car with wires coming out of it - don't know whatever happened about that. They just-they said it was okay. Um, there was also - there's also a report of a shooter in the Crystal Room - which is on the casino floor - there is an elevator that goes from the Mandalay Tower directly to the Crystal Room. Um, I know Metro went and responded and cleared ever- cleared everyone out and cleared the Crystal Room itself. There was also, um, reports on the 29th floor that there might be possibly people involved there and Metro responded there also and cle-cleared that out. But I think that's pretty much the gist of it. Most of it was just communication between Metro, our managers and-and officers going to different locations to move people.

BH: Okay. Okay if that's it then I'll go ahead and call that. Operator same persons present. PD ended interview at 1520 hours.
